CUNY CONFERENCE ON THE PHONOLOGY OF ENDANGERED LANGUAGES

Co-sponsored by the MA/PhD Program in Linguistics at the City University of New York, the CUNY Phonology Forum, and The CUNY Endangered Language Initiative

The CUNY Conference on the Phonology of Endangered Languages will take place January 12 – 14, 2011 at the CUNY Graduate Center in Manhattan.

The goal of the conference is to learn whatever we can from the sound patterns of languages that are endangered or threatened, with a special emphasis on understudied languages. Papers are invited on any topic related to the phonology and phonetics of endangered languages from any perspective.

Invited speakers include:

Pattie Epps (UT Austin)	Amanda Miller (Ohio State University)
Matthew Gordon (UCSB)	Keren Rice (U of Toronto)
K. David Harrison (Swarthmore)	Erich Round (Yale)

Authors are invited to submit an anonymous one-page abstract (in English, as pdf attachment) by September 1, 2010, accompanied by a separate page stating name(s) of author(s), title of paper, affiliation, e-mail contact information, and a preference for oral paper (30 min slot) or poster presentation. Send the submission to endan@cunyphonologyforum.net with the word “abstract” in the subject line. Notification e-mails will be sent out in October 2010.

Conference organizers

Juliette Blevins (MPI-EVA & CUNY)
Chuck Cairns (CUNY)
Eric Raimy (U of Wisconsin-Madison)
